Supporting Our Military Families

Hawk's Prairie Rotary continues to help families of those serving our country in all branches of the service.

To date the Military Family Support Day has raised more than $250,000. We support family readiness groups, donate to the Fort Lewis & McChord food banks, Fisher House, & Madigan Foundation. We buy childcare coupons, give holiday baskets to needy families and provide military dependents scholarships for college. As we continue to support military families, we invite you to join us by sponsoring the Military Family Support Day on Saturday, September 12, 2009 at 10 am.

Visit us online for more information on the March at MilitaryFamilyMarch.com! Register the morning of the event at the Cabela's Parking Lot

The Event will be held at the Cabelas parking lot off Interstate 5 at exit 111. Please join us at 10 am. Donations are gladly accepted, but not required to participate.
