

CHEF AMADEUS TO SHOW US A “BUMPIN GOOD TIME WITH MUSHROOMS” AT THE 3RD ANNUAL PACIFIC NORTHWEST MUSHROOM FESTIVAL 5: 30 PM SATURDAY JULY 24TH!

Chef Amadeus tempts taste buds with tantalizing dishes inspired by global cuisine and fueled by a passion for great food. He uses an array of international ingredients to create some of the most innovative dishes his clients have ever experienced. Chef Amadeus was raised in Jacksonville, Florida.. Beginning his culinary journey with his mother from Philadelphia and grandmother from Puerto Rico gave him an incredible head start in the kitchen. During his travels across the United States and abroad, Chef Amadeus discovered a broad palette, which sparked him to create delectable fusion recipes. While working in various kitchens, many guests began to invite Chef Amadeus to their homes to prepare his own creations in their kitchens. When Chef Amadeus visited the Pacific Northwest of the United States, he was engaged by the freshness of the food and wine. He has since moved to Seattle, Washington, where his clients enjoy his artful down-home cooking and unabashed haute cuisine. Chef Amadeus actively participates in outreach and civic work; reinforcing the connection between nutrition and healthy communities. Check out his website at www.chefamadeus.com or call 206-355-2629
